JUST ONE RUN SHY.

Indianapolis Presents a Patched-Up Team, and Terre Haute Wins. Fisher pitched good ball yesterday, but Goar was just enough better to keep the Indianapolis team from forging ahead of Kansas City. The defeat may be attributed to various causes, the principal of which was utter inability to hit the Terre Haute pitcher. Possibly this was due to a general feeling of depression among the men over the shift in the team necessitated by Canavan's absence and the injury to Hogriever. The latter started in to play, but his injured hand pained him so badly that he could not hold the bat, and Phillips went to right field, while Wood covered second. This arrangement lasted but a few moments, as it was seen that Phillips would be sure to have trouble with ground hits. Donovan, a local player, was put on second, while Wood went to right field. These changes all tended to give the players the idea that they couldn't win, and they acted like they were beaten before the game was five minutes old. Fisher had much to do with the loss of his own game, for had he fielded his position Evansville ...... 0000100201-4 12 2 something approaching Indianapolis would longing the post mortem. The most brilliant feature of the somewhat coloriess game was a magnificent stop by Newell in the second inning of a hard drive by Roach. A couple of double plays, in which Donovan and Roat particspated very actively, are worthy of attention, but aside from these there was very little to cheer the drooping spirits of the crowd.

runs, and the other was a gift from

Donovan and Motz, the former having two errors in rapid succession, and Motz making a wretched fumble, which might have saved the day had it been avoided. There ere, perhaps, several other causes which might be ascribed, but there is no use pro-

The visitors were given a run in the first inning when Fisher, while covering first base on a run, dropped Motz's throw of Conner's grounder. This break was followed by two easy outs, but Weddige and Carney came to the front with singles, on which Connor got around. Gallagher hit to Newell, who threw Weddidge out on the line. In the second inning, after Newell had made the remarkable stop above noted, Donovan let Gifford's easy grounder roll right between his legs. A passed ball advanced the runner, and, after Goar had fouled out, Donovan repeated his performance on Connor's grounder, and Motz capped the climax by rolling Gilks's casy und on the ground while Gifford the plate. Hartman was then thrown out at first by Roat. The third and when, with one out, Weddidge the fifth, when, with one out, Weddidge hit to Fisher, who let the ball bound away from him, and then threw it over Motz's head so far into the bleachers that the runner reached third before it was recovered. Carney's scratch single, which bounded wildly over Donovan's head, sent Weddidge home. Gallagher then struck out and Roach was cut off at first by Roat.

Roach was cut off at first by Roat.

Indianapolis got but one man to first base in six innings, so effective was Goar's work in the box. In the seventh Carney dropped Goar's throw of Newell's grounder, and a passed ball sent the runner to second. Wood advanced him to third on a sacrifice, and he scored on Mot's single to center. Roat flew to Gallagher, but McCarthy hit safe to left and stole second, and Hogan followed with a bunt single, Motz crossing the plate. Hogan stole second, and, with a beautiful chance to win out, all McFarland could do was to hit down to Hartman and be thrown out at down to Hartman and be thrown out at first. This was the only bid Indianapolis made for the game. In eight of the nine innings it was a case of one, two, three, with the single exception of the fifth, when Roat hit safe, but was left at first base. The attendance was 1,200. Score: A.B. R. H. O. Match Between Patchen and Robert J. BUFFALO, Aug. 2.- The officials of the Buffalo Driving Park received a dispatch from Mr. Hamlin, the owner of Robert J., stating that last night a match race was made between the little gelding and Joe Patchen, the stallion that defeated him yesterday, to be contested during the circuit meeting in Buffalo, Wednesday, Aug. 7. Mr. Hamlin attributes Robert J.'s downfall yesterday to the cold, stiff wind that prevailed and expressed the conviction that on his own track the gelding will reverse yesterday's verdict. OUR JACK'S GOOD RACE.

Took the Mile and One-Sixteenth Event in Fast Time. NEW YORK, Aug. 2.-Those who went down to Brighton Beach to-day saw one good race, the handicap at one mile and a sixteenth, run as the fourth event. Our Jack was the favorite and Hugh Penny second choice. The flag fell to a good start. Hugh Penny made the running up to the three-quarters, when Our Jack passed him and into the stretch they ran locked, but Auerlein came out of the ruck and got within half a length of our Jack, while Hugh Penny had to be content with third place. There was a close contest in the second race for Gismond, the favorite, led all the way down the stretch, while Bessie Browning came fast at the end and was beaten only a head. Summaries: First-Five furlongs. Silk, 113 (Taral), 8 to 5, won; Humming Bird, 94 (Sheedy), 8 to 5, second; Plimingo, 96 (Keefe), 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:03%. Ruby, itscape and

Queer Dead-Heat Race. ST. LOUIS, Aug. 2 .- A good card, beautiful weather and a fast track attracted three thousand people to Fair Association Park to-day. The sport was excellent and the finishes close and exciting. The event of the day was the third race, when Lobengula, at 3 to 1, ran a dead heat with the one-to-three odds-on favorite, Prime Minister. Prime Minister made the running all the way round, but was caught by Lobengula in the last thirty yards and finished even. The judges ordered the tie to be run off, but the owners of Prime Minister refused to send their horse to the post, and the race was awarded to Lobengula

COURTNEY SCORED.

Young Fennell's Father Flays the Cornell Coach in a Public Letter.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Aug. 2.-T. McCarthy Fennell, father of oarsman Fennell, of the Cornell crew, is exceedingly indignant at statements made by Charles E. Courtney blaming his son for Cornell's loss of the Henley race. To a reporter Mr. Fennell, who is a prominent citizen, said: "Courtney's statements are palpably false, and do not agree with what my son writes me, and I have every reason to believe the boy gives the true version." Mr. Fennell has addressed an open letter to Courtne in which he scores the coach severely. He

"Dear Sir-I see that repeatedly in your interviews since your return to this country from England you charge that the race against Trinity Hall could have been easily won by Cornell but for Fennell's 'catching second; Corncob, 107 (Garrigan), 4 to 1, third. Time, 1:42%. Fargo also ran.

you overtrained the Cornell crew. It is now as patent as day that you did, and, from past experience, I have a doubt in my mind if you had not a motive. How, comes it you could stay away from your post of duty at a time when, if you had a spark of manhood or the proverbial pluck of the American, you should insist on heing borne to the river on a stretcher? on being borne to the river on a stretcher But, no. You would sooner have the odiu of defeat forever cling to your name than part with your old tricks. To the surprise of all, you pop up, hale and hearty, in London immediately after the races, arranging to come back by the first steamer to America to be the first in the field to give your many-sided versions of that deplorable flasco.

"In conclusion, I beg to say your statements in relation to my soil are egregiously, if not willfully, at fault. In the absence of my son I shall not tolerate misrepresentation, much less allow his name to hang as a fad on the lips of any coward or fake oarsman. "T. M'CARTHY FENNELL."

THE BARBER CLAIM.

Decision Against Plaintiffs Involving Property Valued at $2,500,000.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 2.-An opinion favorable to the defendants has been filed in the famous case of Samuel Barber et al., heirs of John Barber, against the Pennsylvania Company, in which the plaintiffs lay claim to the property on Pennsylvania avenue, this city, occupied by the extensive office buildings of the Pennsylvania Company. The claim involves about $2,500,000, and has been fought in various courts for about five years. Judge Ewing, in the Allegheny County Court, and the Pennsylvania Supreme Court both decided the claim invalid. It is entirely probable that the plaintiffs will push their claim further, and appeal from the present decision to the United from the present decision to the United States Supreme Court.

Flaw in the Indictment. CENTRALIA, Ill., Aug. 2.—On account of a flaw in the indictment both John A. Mc-Clelland and Wesley Tapor were released to-day.
